I have ported the code. In fact thmproving.cpkg5 is already included in 5.3.0, but completely undocumented. Let's wait until next release to make it official (with proper doc).

I think thmproving.cpkg5 is OK, but the documentation needs to be checked and properly integrated.

Any news about this package?
Can we close this issue quickly and easily?

Status?
Even something hasty is perhaps better than nothing?

I had renamed all functions with prefix "Thm".
Check it in, so that it is public, and then postpone this issue for proper documentation.
