Description
When copying and pasting into the interactive windows sometimes all newlines after a "--" comment are ignored. Two examples:
<pre>2+2; -- gsdadfg 1-1;</pre> only 2+2 is executed, but with <pre>2+2; -- gsdadfg 1-1;</pre>
both commands are executed

Fixed.

BUT there remains a more subtle problem: the way the GUI determines the state of the parser appears to be "guesswork". If the user types just a line containing an end-of-line comment, then the GUI says the parser is busy parsing a command when really it should be "idle".
